

FHBPA Board of Directors Election Results

The FHBPA has announced the results of the 2019 elections to the FHBPA Board of Directors. 5,499 ballots were distributed to the membership at large and 637 or 11.6% of those eligible cast ballots. There were two owner members who were re-elected to 3 year terms, Tom Cannell with 430 votes and Herb Oster with 399 votes topped the list. Nick Vaccarezza with 238 votes will take the position of owner alternate for one year.

On the trainer side, David Fawkes was re-elected to a 3 year term posting 390 votes, Carlo Vaccarezza (296 votes) and Patrick Biancone (282 votes) will also serve 3 year terms. Marcus Vitali with 277 votes will be the trainer alternate for one year.

The new board will convene later this month to elect a President, who will in turn select members of the executive committee.

The FHBPA congratulates the new Board Members.
